Curriculum Summary Document

Year 8 – Art

Module/Unit of Learning	Taught During	What will students learn?	How does this help to build a broad and strong foundation?	Links to other Subjects
LC1 – The Kraken & Black out Poetry	Autumn Term	Students will learn about the work of Tom Phillips and Black out Poetry. They will create their own interpretation using The Kraken by Alfred Lord Tennyson as the starting point. They will then develop their ideas through investigations and experimentations to develop a 3D design inspired by the work of Stephanie Kilghast and Shayne Greco.	Year 8 is an introduction to design and 3d. pupils will select, research and develop ideas, problem solving and building resilience.	English- literacy links with poetry, interpretation and visualisation. D & T- design of 3D form
	Spring Term	Students will realise their design ideas using clay. Their pieces will be fired and painted. Students will also be introduced to the work of Naomi Christensen and her use of oil pastel to create close up observations. They will create their own work inspired by this,	Students will be working in clay and learning how to slab, mould and build 3d pieces.	Science- use of clay as a materials. Maths- measurement, ration and shape. D & T- design

Module/Unit of Learning	Taught During	What will students learn?	How does this help to build a broad and strong foundation?	Links to other Subjects
LC2 – Creatures of the Deep 3D	Summer Term	Students will continue to develop their ideas using wire to create a form inspired by their previous ideas. This form may move towards abstraction as the students manipulate the material.	Learning how to create a 3D form using a different material.	Science- use of clay as a material. Maths- measurement, ration and shape. D & T- design