It is time to start secondary school soon.

Some people may feel excited about starting secondary school.

Some people may feel worried.

It is okay to feel lots of different feelings about this change.

It is a good idea to take my time to learn about my new school.

This could help me feel better about the changes.

My teacher, parents / carers or trusted adults can answer my questions.

My new school is called Poltair. I will be in Polowen.

There are different ways to travel to secondary school.

Some learners will be brought by their parents. Some learners may come in a taxi.

This is the gate I will walk through when I arrive.

Secondary schools are larger than primary schools. I will see the learners from Poltair's Universal provision walking around the school.

I will bring and bag and a water bottle to school. I may bring a packed lunch or I may have a school meal. I will eat my lunch in the Polowen kitchen area.
