Brainstorm.

Take the title and create a brainstorm across a double page. This can include images and drawings. The more detailed you make this the more refined your idea will be.

Brainstorm &
Artist Research
complete. 28th
February 2020.

Photographer Research.

There can be 3-5 photographers named in each question. Look at the work of them all and produce a double page spread on 3 photographers. Think about the presentation and most importantly include your written opinion and a copy of their work. Describe, Process, Analyse, Evaluate & In the style of photo.

Photographer Research.

You will have selected your idea and will now need to find a photographer or two that link to your work. Do a double page spread on them. Write and tell me why you have selected them and how they relate to your work.

Resource Material.

Collect resource materials that link to your ideas. This can be collaged images and information from newspapers and magazine, photographs and drawings. It should be a mixture of all of these and it should be annotated telling me why you have chosen this and how it relates to the question.

Ideas.

Your ideas will have started to grow and develop from the moment you selected a question. Now you must evidence these ideas. You can do this by writing about them, drawing them or using collage.

Development of Ideas & Contextualisation.

You are now ready to refine your ideas. You might do this through drawing or writing. It is at this point that you must include a contextualisation link if you have not already done so. Split the page into 4 and sketch 4 different ideas, annotate and colour. Include Contact sheets of any photoshoots.
